2. POLICING

The Chair had been sent the police report for the month.

Anti-social behaviour had decreased however there had been 1 arson incident. Police were increasing patrols in the area as cold calling and suspicious vehicles had been reported.

3. COUNTY BOROUGH COUNCILLOR'S REPORTS

CBC Rogers opened by saying that he had attended a meeting with Brymbo Developments regarding the steelworks site. WCBC would be submitting a planning application for the school site. The completion of the water pipe replacement works on the Council properties in the area was near completion. He had met with residents of Tai Owens who had identified various issues with the housing accommodation which would now be addressed. The Taylor Wimpey development was progressing however there had been issues with noise, dust and also mud in the wetter weather. The enforcement Officer at WCBC was keeping in contact with the developer. CBC Rogers said that the new road signs for Tanyfron and Bwlchgwyn had been ordered and were in production.

CBC Brown said that the LDP consultation closed on the 6th of July. He had noted 3 issues. Firstly that 419 sites had originally been looked at secondly the expansion of the Ruthin Road site had been originally ruled out however there were plans to expand the junction nearby which could mean re-visiting this as a possible solution to increase the capacity of this site and thirdly the scoring process that had originally been used could be revisited as GP services and the Post Office service had now changed. CBC Rogers said that the CC were continuing to fund a Barrister and solicitor who were advising the CC on the proposed LDP. This advice was being shared with Cllr's. CBC Brown said that he had been reassured that the funding for the school site was still intact. He said that in his election campaign he had focused on the charitable status of the Enterprise Centre and would be looking at bringing it in line with other similar buildings in the Borough that were being subsidised. CBC Rogers declared an interest as he was a trustee of the Enterprise Centre. He said that there had been no discussions regarding future funding of the Centre. CBC Wellens said that there had been issues with the travellers site in Bwlchgwyn however when planning officer had attended there were no infringements to report. The situation was being monitored. He had been around the village and noted that roads and verges needed to be tidied. He was also meeting the Housing Officer to look at work that was needed on the Council properties in the village. The Chairman said that Cllr McNeil/Marsh would be asked to pass on the locations to CBC Wellens of all the new litter bins and grit bins that were to be purchased from the village/environmental fund.
